Weaker-than-expected revenue guidance...

- US$ revenues grew 2.9% QoQ to $2,728 million, below our 3.5% growth and $2,744 million estimate. Constant currency revenues grew 2.2% QoQ vs our estimate of 2.5% QoQ
- Rupee revenues grew 2.9% QoQ to ₹ 17,567 crore and were below our ₹ 17,633 crore estimate
- At 24.2%, EBIT margins expanded 10 bps QoQ and were above our 23.8% and 30 bps decline estimate mainly on account of lower S&M expenses (down by 4.7% QoQ)
- Reported PAT of ₹ 3,726 crore was above our ₹ 3,497 crore estimate led by margin beat and higher other income (up 8.5% QoQ). The company declared an interim dividend of ₹ 13 per share

CC revenue guidance revised downwards to 5.5-6.5% for FY18E

Infosys' revenues grew 2.9% QoQ in dollar terms driven by broad based growth across revenue segments accompanied by improvement in realisation (up 1.3% QoQ). The management sounded optimistic on BFSI on a mid to longer-term basis on the back of higher client spending and deal pipeline. In terms of outlook for FY18E, there was disappointment on the revenue front as Infosys has cut its FY18E revenue guidance to 5.5-6.5% from 6.5-8.5% earlier in constant currency terms. This implies CQGR of 0.5-2% for Q3, Q4FY18. Cut in the growth outlook was primarily on the back of H1FY18 performance and seasonality in H2FY18E. CC revenue guidance translates to 6.5-7.5% in $ terms. Overall, we expect Infosys' $ revenues to grow at 6.9% CAGR to US$11.7 billion in FY17-19E.

Margins better than expectations; retains EBIT margin outlook for FY18E

EBIT margins expanded 10 bps QoQ to 24.2% owing to a reduction in onsite mix (+20 bps), up-tick in utilisation (+30 bps), realisation (+30 bps) offset by wage hike (-80 bps). The management indicated a wage hike has been given to mid level employees effective July 2017 while for senior employees it would be effective from January 2018. Overall, the management maintained its EBIT margin band at 23-25%. We factor in EBIT margin of 24.1%, 24.2% in FY18, FY19, respectively.

Search for new CEO progressing, clean chit to investigations

Infosys said the process of identifying the next CEO has been initiated and is progressing well. In light of investigations, the company mentioned that the Chairman has conducted a review of all external investigations including the acquisition of Panaya and severance payments to the former CFO. The company reaffirmed the conclusion of the independent investigation that there was no merit to the allegations of wrongdoing with respect to the acquisition of Panaya. Infosys further confirmed the company made appropriate and timely disclosures relating to severance payments to a former CFO at the end of the quarter of his resignation, and subsequently in the company's 20-F and annual report.

Maintain HOLD till clarity emerges on new CEO

Infosys reported a decent performance during the quarter. However, there was disappointment on weaker-than-expected revenue guidance for FY18E. We have cut our earnings estimates by 1-2%. We continue to maintain our HOLD recommendation till clarity emerges on appointment of the new CEO. We value the stock at ₹ 955 per share (14x FY19E EPS of ₹ 68.2 per share).

Cut in CC revenue guidance to 5.5-6.5% for FY18E...

Infosys' revenues grew 2.9% QoQ in dollar terms driven by broad based growth across revenue segments accompanied by improvement in realisation (up 1.3% QoQ). In terms of FY18E outlook, there was disappointment on the revenue front as the company has cut its FY18E revenue guidance to 5.5-6.5% from 6.5-8.5% earlier in constant currency terms. This implies CQGR of 0.5-2% for Q3 and Q4FY18. A cut in growth estimates was primarily on the back of H1FY18 performance and seasonality in H2FY18E. CC revenue guidance translates to 6.5-7.5% in dollar terms. Overall, we expect Infosys' dollar revenues to grow at 6.9% CAGR to US$11.7 billion in FY17-19E.

Optimistic on BFSI in mid to longer term...

Among geographies, North America (60.6% of revenue) grew 1.9% in CC while Europe (23.2% of revenue) and RoW (12.9%) witnessed growth of 4.1% and 2.3%, respectively. India (3.3%) declined 5.1% in CC terms after 11.2% growth in the prior quarter. Among industry segments, growth was broad based with financial services (33.4% of revenue) witnessing growth of 2.6% on a CC basis while manufacturing (22%), RCL (22.6%) and ECS (22%) grew 1.2%, 1.7% and 3% respectively. In BFSI, insurance segment witnessed increased growth (6.2% QoQ in reported terms) compared to BFS segment (2.5% QoQ). The management sounded optimistic on BFSI on a mid to longer-term basis on the back of higher client spending and deal pipeline. Structural issues in the retail vertical could lead to softness in coming quarters.

New services, software contribution up-ticks...

Revenues from new services & software collectively account for 11% (9.9% in Q1) to revenues and have contributed ~$1 billion in incremental $2 billion in the last two years. EBIT margin guidance for FY18E intact...

Infosys' EBIT margins expanded 10 bps QoQ to 24.2% owing to reduction in onsite mix (+20 bps), up-tick in utilisation (+30 bps), realisation (+30 bps) offset by wage hike (-80 bps). The management indicated that wage hike has been given to mid level employees effective July 2017 while that for senior employees would be effective from January 2018. Overall, the management has maintained its EBIT margin band at 23-25%. We have factored in EBIT margin of 24.1%, 24.2% in FY18, FY19, respectively.

Utilisation on upward trajectory in last three quarters...

Attrition (annualised consolidated) increased to 21.4%, up 40 bps in the quarter. Utilisation (ex-trainees) has been on an upward trajectory in the last three consecutive quarters and increased 70 bps QoQ and 220 bps YoY to 84.7% in Q2, highest ever utilisation level achieved by the company and was one of the parameters that aided margins. Going ahead, we expect utilisation at \sim 80%, 81% in FY18E, FY19E, respectively.

Outlook and valuation

Infosys reported Q2FY18 earnings with performance largely in line with our expectations on the operating front. There was a disappointment on the revenue guidance front as the company has cut its FY18E revenue guidance to 5.5-6.5% from 6.5-8.5% earlier in constant currency terms while maintaining its targeted EBIT margin band at 23-25%. Infosys indicated that the process of identifying the next CEO have been initiated and is progressing well. In light of investigations, the company mentioned that the Chairman has conducted a review of all external investigations including the acquisition of Panaya and severance payments to the former CFO.

Infosys reported a decent performance in the quarter. However, there was disappointment on weaker-than-expected revenue guidance for FY18E. We cut our earnings estimates by 1-2%. We continue to maintain our HOLD recommendation till clarity emerges on the appointment of the new CEO. We value the stock at ₹ 955 per share (14x FY19E EPS of ₹ 68.2 per share).
