- Titan's quarterly update indicated a strong revival in the Jewellery business, with a recovery rate of ~98% (excluding the sales of raw gold) in Q2FY21. Sep'20 jewellery sales remained decent despite the inauspicious period and a 15-day delay for the commencement of the festive season (mid-Oct in FY21 vs. late-Sep in FY20). The division added 8 net-new Tanishq stores in Q2FY21 (14 in H1).
- Studded Jewellery is yet to recover to last year levels, whereas gold coin sales remained high in Q2FY21 as well. Wedding jewellery segment performed well during the quarter.
- The company continued to sell excess gold in its inventory and the quarter had sales of Rs3.9bn (after Rs6.1bn in sales in Q1FY21) of raw gold. This is likely to generate liquidity.
- Watch and Eyewear segments had a recovery rate of around 55-58% in Q2FY21, with September recording a recovery rate of ~70%. In Q2FY21, Titan added 1 WOT stores and 3 Helios stores while closing 2 Fastrack stores and 12 Eye+ stores, on a net basis.
- With respect to other business segments, all 13 stores of 'Taneira' have reopened after the lockdown. The recovery rate for fragrances and accessories has been ~50%. CaratLane posted a strong recovery with ~14% yoy growth in Q2FY21. The brand added 5 new stores in the quarter, taking the total store count to 97.
- In terms of consumer behavior, non-metros have recovered sharply, while metros are in the path of recovery. The walk-ins have been improving, with conversion rates and average ticket size being higher than the comparable period in the previous year. E-commerce is leading the recovery as the trade channel continues to pose some challenges due to destocking.
- Based on these factors, we forecast a 4% decline in sales to Rs42.8bn, and EBITDA and PAT declines of 19% and 26%, respectively. Lower studded mix and relatively higher discounts (based on channel checks) are likely to keep the pressure on gross margins in the near term.
- The recovery in jewellery is encouraging. It should see further improvement in the upcoming festive/wedding season. Strong growth recovery showcases business strength and builds in confidence for market share gains. TTAN remains our top pick among discretionary names as we believe that the pace of recovery will improve significantly with the unlocking and the onset of the festive season which can drive more upsides. Maintain Buy.
