- The rupee managed to gain another 7 paise on the back of positive domestic equities and Dollar index, which remained below 91 levels
- The dollar index moved slightly higher as strength in T-note yields supported gains. However, investors would be cautious and would wait for the outcome of the FOMC meet

- The Nifty continued its upward move as it closed with a gain of more than 1.09%. Healthy buying was seen in midcap and small cap stocks as advance/decline ratio was in favour of bulls. As per options data, 14500 Put option has significant OI and any dip around that level should be used to create long position
- The Bank Nifty managed to sustain above its series VWAP level of 32380 as it closed with a gain of more than 1.35%. HDFC Bank helped the index to outperform the Nifty.

- Foreign institutional investors (FII) turned net seller to the tune of ₹ 927 crore on April 26. They sold worth ₹ 1055 crore in the equity market and bought worth ₹ 129 crore in the debt market

- Due to weakness in the Dollar index, the rupee managed to move near its support levels. Looking at the writing in OTM Puts, we feel the rupee should move towards 75 levels again
- The dollar-rupee April contract on the NSE was at ₹ 74.64 in the last session. The open interest fell 16% for the April series
