Logical discrepancy not recognised term under EC framework: Mamata

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Kolkata, April 14

TRINAMOOL CONGRESS CHIEF Mamata Banerjee on Tuesday alleged that "logical discrepancy" under the SIR exercise is not an officially recognised term under the Election Commission framework and was selectively applied in West Bengal, unlike Bihar, to benefit the BJP.

Addressing rallies at Pingla in Paschim Medinipur, Tamluk in Purb Medinipur and Domjur in Howrah, Banerjee urged women to "stand firm" against security forces if attempts are made to prevent people from voting, while asserting that she was not asking anyone to indulge in violence.

The chief minister said, "There is no officially recognised term like 'logical discrepancy' under the framework of the Election Commission. It is being selectively applied in West Bengal, unlike in Bihar, to benefit the BJP," Banerjee added that she has not seen a "dirty party" like the BJP. "The job of the central forces is to maintain peace. We have no objection to that. But what if they prevent people from voting? I will request women to keep rooms in their hands and stand firm against those wearing boots and carrying arms. I am not asking you to assault anyone or incite a riot, but you must do everything to safeguard your rights," Banerjee said. "I even moved the Supreme Court to protect your rights, and only after that, the names of 3.2 million voters were enlisted," she added. Banerjee questioned why such a large number of central forces were brought to West Bengal. "They have brought in officers who are close to the BJP and replaced the ICs... If your sole aim was to keep peace here, you could have used the West Bengal Police. Why, instead of doing that, did you take away all their powers and bring in central forces from outside? People don't see central forces during any natural calamity or riot."

She asked people to lodge complaints against any police officer if they were "tortured". The TMC supremo, urging people to vote against the BJP, said, "The BJP has snatched everything from you... Voting against it would be your only way to take revenge." The BJP is holding rallies at places that have direct railway connectivity with Uttar Pradesh and Bihar so that they can bring in people from those states to fill up the venues, she alleged.

POLL POSITION

BJP won't allow Babri replica in Bengal: Shah

UNION HOME MINISTER Amit Shah on Tuesday asserted the BJP will not allow a Babri Masjid replica to be built in West Bengal once it "assumes power in the state after the Assembly elections". He even termed Humayun Kabir, the chief of the newly-formed Aam Janata Unnayan Party that is taking on both the BJP and the TMC, an "agent" of Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee. "Humayun Kabir should listen with his ears open when I say the BJP won't allow the mosque to be built. Mamata Banerjee and her nephew should also know that their dreams of building that mosque will be shattered on May 5," Shah said. —PTI

Atmosphere of fear in West Bengal: Modi

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi claimed on Tuesday that there is an atmosphere of fear in West Bengal where incidents of murder, rape, rioting and political violence have reached their peak. Modi also said the energy, enthusiasm and zeal towards the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) witnessed among the people are truly remarkable. Virtually interacting with the BJP workers of West Bengal under the 'Mera Booth Sabse Mazboot' programme, Modi said the people of the state had voted the Trinamool Congress (TMC) to power to free themselves from the atrocities of the previous Left Front government, but the Mamata Banerjee-led party has gone even beyond its predecessors. —PTI

Vijay announces sops for farmers, MSMEs

TVK CHIEF VIJAY on Tuesday assured waiver of crop loans for farmers and slammed the DMK government over the alleged closure of several MSMEs. Addressing a rally, he said the party's comprehensive election manifesto will be released on April 16. Assuring full waiver of crop loans for small farmers, he said ₹3,500 will be provided per quintal for paddy and ₹4,500 per tonne for sugarcane. Pledging to allocate ₹15,000 crore as a state guarantee fund for weaker MSMEs, Vijay said peak-hour electricity charges will be scrapped for MSMEs, besides providing tax-free electricity for five years. He said a 50% subsidy scheme will be implemented for weavers for purchase of raw products. "The pension amount for the weavers will be increased to ₹3,000." —PTI

Deletion of names irks Matuas, Muslims

SWEETY KUMARI
Nadia, April 14

IN THE DISTANT village of Chupipota in Nadia district, almost all conversations these days begin with either of two questions: "Is your name on the voter list?" and, "Have you appealed to the tribunal?"

All 152 names up for adjudication in Chupipota village's Booth No. 11 were found to be not eligible after the Election Commission of India's Special Intensive Revision (SIR). In Booth No. 12, only two (Shaiful Islam and Abul Kalam Sheikh) of the 120 people up for adjudication found their names in the voter list.

The story is similar across Nadia as well as the districts of Hooghly and North 24 Parganas, with a high population of Matua and Muslim communities. Over 70% of the names under adjudication here due to "logical discrepancies" have been left out of electoral rolls.

The anger over exclusion from the voting list, and the failure of tribunals to offer any recourse so far, is palpable – and directed at the entire political spectrum.

Shakila Bibi, 40, is deleted due to a discrepancy in her father's name spelling – he was listed as Dolehar Sheikh in the 2002 SIR but later as Sheikh Dollar. She says that if she voted, she would not have picked either the BJP or Trinamool Congress. "I voted from 2006 to 2024, how come I am not a citizen now?... She (Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee) says she stands with us, but where was she when names were being deleted?...

We realise now that we are not a vote bank."

A local observer suggests the TMC fears as much. "There are 80,000 polling booths in Bengal... The margin between the TMC and BJP in a booth in general is 10,000-12,000... So the arithmetic of deletions may do the trick."

The most common reason for Muslim residents failing the adjudication test is being progeny of someone who has six or more children in the voter rolls already. For the Matuas, the predominant cause is mismatch with names of parents or the previous SIR.

Congress Krishnanagar Dakshin candidate Abdur Rahim Shaikh says: "In this election, the BJP has done rigging by deleting those who will not vote for them. People feel the TMC has also supported the process to ensure that the politics in the state is binary, and other parties are kept out."

However, the BJP seems to be underestimating the Matua anger. The party identified this Scheduled Caste community of Hindus who migrated from Bangladesh, and had been living without official status in Bengal, as a vote bank to get a leg-up in the state. The Modi government cited the community's welfare as one of its main incentives for bringing in the Citizenship (Amendment) Act.

But citizenship has proved to not be as simple or as quick as promised – also due to the reluctance of people from the community to apply for it. Many already have the necessary identity documents, and fear that applying now would mark them out as "Bangladeshis".

Rahul targets both BJP & TMC

CONGRESS LEADER RAHUL Gandhi on Tuesday launched a two-pronged attack in West Bengal, accusing the BJP and the RSS of destroying the Constitution with their "hate-filled thinking", while claiming the ruling TMC has failed in fulfilling its promise of providing jobs to the state's youth.

Addressing poll rallies in Uttar Dinajpur, Malda and Murshidabad districts, he claimed the residents of Bengal were stuck between the "hated-spreading" BJP and anti-people TMC, and projected the Congress as the only option for the welfare of the masses. Gandhi alleged the Mamata Banerjee dispensation's "indulgence in corruption and wrong governance policies paved the way for the proliferation of the BJP's influence in the state".

"Had the TMC not perpetrated violence and delivered governance, the BJP would not have been able to set foot here. "Mamata Banerjee promised jobs to five lakh people. But 8.4 million have applied for unemployment allowance," he said. —PTI
