Dear Sir(s) / Madam,

This is in reference to the news articles appearing in various media in relation to certain matters between the Promoter of Sun TV Network Limited and his family member.

The alleged matter dates back to 22 years when the Company was a closely held private limited Company.

The statements allegedly made in the articles are incorrect, misleading, speculative, defamatory and not supported by facts or law. We wish to inform that all acts have been done in accordance with legal obligations and the same had been duly vetted by concerned intermediaries before the public issue of the Company.

The matters alleged in the articles does not have any bearing on the business of the Company or its day-to-day functioning and being the family matter of the Promoter are purely personal in nature.

We are not aware of any negotiations/ events towards settlement in the promoter's family and to the best of our knowledge, there are no events/information that are material or required to be disclosed under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations which may have a bearing on the operations or performance of the Company.

This is for your information and records.
