Press - Release

Trident Group - Visionary Expansion plan for Punjab ₹2,000 Crore Investment to accelerate growth and employment generation.

November 20, 2025: Padma Shri. Rajinder Gupta, Chairman/Promoter of Trident Group, has outlined an expansion strategy anchored by ₹2000 crore in Punjab, reinforcing its commitment to driving industrial growth, employment generation, and sustainable development in the region. The announcement was shared during a press briefing led by Punjab's Industry and Commerce Minister, Shri Sanjeev Arora.

Under its ₹2,000 crore expansion plan, Trident Group will invest ₹1,500 crore in Barnala to scale up Terry Towel production and modernize paper manufacturing facilities. Additionally, ₹500 crore will be allocated in Mohali to establish a state-of-the-art corporate office and a capacity-building center. This strategic initiative will strengthen the Group's presence across diverse sectors and is expected to generate 2,000 employment opportunities, with a focus on engaging semi-skilled rural women and advancing women's empowerment.
