Digital delivery mode drives up result beat, estimates and Outlook

- NIIT reported strong results with 15.8% QoQ growth in INR revenue (DE: 2.0%) led by stellar sequential growth 12% in CLS (added 3 new MTS client, 1 renewal) and 45.1% in S&C (improved International volumes).
- EBIT Margin further improved by 380bps to 13.3% (DE 10.4%) on improved utilization, better product mix in CLS Biz (EBITDA: 23%, up 253bps QoQ), positive operating leverage in SNC Biz (EBITDA: -8.1% against LQ -22%). Loss from Schools stood at Rs 47mn (up 16.3% QoQ).
- Outlook for CLS Biz (86% of Rev) remains positive as it added 3 new clients (one each in ENU, Telecomm, Life Science) driving up its Revenue visibility by 4.2% QoQ to $270mn. NIIT expects steady improvement in SNC Biz as domestic hiring improves (both in Banking and IT).
- NIIT has displayed spectacular transformation by moving its delivery to Digital mode that ensured revenue stability, better realisations and helped it take a structural leap on OPM. We Maintain our Buy rating with TP of Rs 220, valued at 15x FY23E.

Spectacular Transformation led by Digital Delivery

In the last 9M, NIIT Ltd has showed a spectacular execution by enabling all its business segments to complete digital delivery model. Despite, significant spend cuts in many of its existing clients (large customers continues to defer budget allocation towards L&D initiatives), it has delivered just a modest revenue decline of 0.6% in YTDFY21 and much improved profitability - EBIT Margin of 13.3% in Q3. Within CLS Business, NIIT has reported 14.8% YoY growth in Q3 led by strong new client additions added 9 new clients since Q1FY20 and 3 clients in Q3. The SNC business performance is recovering as it clocked 45.1% QoQ growth led by bunching up of revenues in International business (Revenues from Universities got bunched up due to COVID related delays). While School Biz is not sold yet (should get completed in this calendar), NIIT has highlighted that is looking for (mid-sized) strategic acquisition. EBIT Margin has been on an improving trajectory since couple of quarters in Q3 led by pandemic related savings, headcount reduction and digital delivery. NIIT expects Travel Cost (5.4% of Revenue - FY20) to remain sub-due till June'21 and then gradually to revert while some pandemic savings will continue. We expect margins to cool down a bit and then stabilize at 11-12% levels.

Change in Estimates

As we see strong traction in CLS to continue, we have upgraded our estimates by 4%/5% / 9% in FY21/FY22/FY23. We expect SNC Revenue to improve (as hiring returns gradually) and have upgraded our estimates by 18%/21% in FY21/FY22 and moderated slightly in FY23. We have upgraded our OPM estimates across FY21/FY22/FY23 by 179bps/258bps/106bps as we expect some improvement margin to be structural in nature.

What to expect Next Quarter

We expect revenues to grow by $^{\circ}0.6\%$ QoQ led by normalized growth in CLS (Q4 is seasonally soft quarter) and SNC business after strong traction in Q3. EBIT Profitability is likely to decline by 92bps to 12.4% as company would witness wage hikes effective Q4.

Valuation

NIIT is well placed in the underpenetrated L&D industry where only 25% of F500 have outsourced L&D. NIIT has started on a track of transformation with improved margin and revenue growth after many years of soft performance that translated into lower PE multiples. However we expect this to change gradually as growth performance improve gradually, while business also get simplified (exit from School segment, Franchise model in S&C). We have valued NIIT at 15x (earlier 15x) of FY23E EPS Rs. 14.9 (earlier Rs. 13.1) and maintain BUY rating with a Target Price of Rs 220 per share.

Key Highlights from Earnings Call

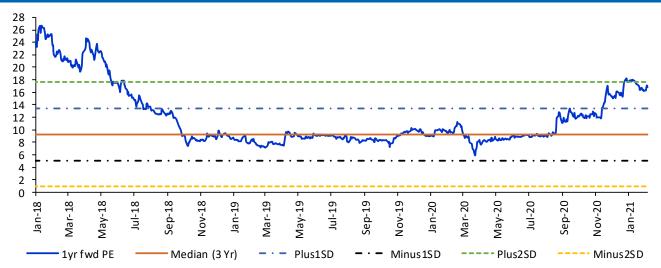

- CLS business (86% of Revenue): The Corporate Learning Systems business grew by 12.0% QoQ and 14.8% YoY to Rs. 2,175Mn. The CLS added 3 new clients (one each in ENU, Life Science, Telecom vertical) taking the total MTS client count to 58. In YTDFY21, CLS revenues grew by 14.4% YoY. This growth is commendable as it is achieved despite some top clients reducing their L&D consumption (upto 25% cut in budget in some cases). NIIT has already highlighted that environment continues to be uncertain but new client addition is aiding growth. The EBITDA margin for CLS Biz improved by 253bps QoQ to 23.0%. This improvement was led by better product mix (better gross margins in newer deals), increased productivity, higher utilization, positive operating leverage.
- SNC Business (16% of Revenue): Skills and Career business grew by 45.1% QoQ to Rs. 359Mn but it is down on YoY due to COVID impact. SNC business EBITDA margin improved to -8.1% from -21.7%. Within SNC, Stackroute grew on YoY basis and TPaaS grew on QoQ basis (numbers not disclosed). NIIT has now started investing in New Products and Customer acquisition within SNC business. The outlook for SNC business is overall positive as NIIT expects Deep skilling demand to be more important forward. Although the remaining uncertainty in the business will fade away once the IT hiring starts.
- Schools Business: Schools business reported a loss of Rs. 47mn (up 16.4% QoQ and down 19.9% YoY). NIIT is still looking for buyers for this business. We expect company to announce complete exit ideally by Q4.
- NIIT Digital Platform: The NIIT digital platform has reached 1.8mn active users and it is being used by CLS and SNC business (centralized). Post pandemic, NIIT expects Digital Classrooms to be preferred model by users, much higher than in-classroom experiences.
- EBIT Margin: NIIT reported EBIT Margin of 13.3% which was up 378bps QoQ and 847bps YoY. NIIT expects some costs to return to business (from pandemic related savings) but expects the overall margin trend to be better than earlier. Example: It expects the Premises Cost to be lower going forward. NIIT has announced wage increase (7%) for all employees which may have an impact of Rs65mn on QoQ basis.

- Enrollments: The enrollments (SNC Biz) declined QoQ to 7,767 from 10,597. However, NIIT highlighted that enrollments numbers have limited impact as pricing is different for Indian and International Enrollments. Also, revenue recognition in International subsidiaries would usually lag behind the enrollment by a quarter, as it gets billed by Universities after training is delivered.
- Acquisition: NIIT highlighted that it is looking for a mid-sized acquisition (which can add possibly product or geography advantage).
- Buyback: The buyback (Rs2.4bn) is likely to conclude by Apr-May'21, post which it would be done with all the capital-distribution part that it has committed from the proceed it received from NITEC stake sale. Post the buyback company would be left up with cash position of about Rs10bn.
